the trucks were filled with ammunition cases.

- b. The hangars are closed, and there are no aircraft on the landing field, but large quantities of gasoline have been delivered.
5. Sakar Balkan: Units from 3 and 8 Labor Districts will shortly begin work on new fortifications in this area.
6. Svilengrad: The frontier sector in this area is commanded by Captain Zdraykov, an Intelligence officer. This sector recently received a number of small trucks and motorcycles. Some of the motorcycles had been fitted with sidecars carrying machine guns.
7. Harmanli: The 30 Infantry Regiment (sub-paragraph 1a) moved here from El Elhovo, and then moved on to an unknown destination. The 12 Infantry Regiment is still at Harmanli.
8. Momchilgrad: In early February 1949, the 19 Infantry Regiment was stationed here.
9. Voden: An infantry formation, possibly a regiment, and reported to have been recently organized, is here under the command of Colonel Vilkov.
10. Dobrich: There is an internment camp nearby.
11. Miscellaneous:
- a. Considerable quantities of ammunition are being moved to Stara Zagora, Sliven, and the Greek frontier from the Ratkovtsi railroad station.
- b. Three hundred Soviets in civilian clothes have arrived at Stara Zagora, about 150 others at Sliven, and between 30 and 40 at Yambol.
- c. In the village of Captain Andreyovo, which is unidentified, there is a frontier sub-sector headquarters. The commander is Lieutenant Kretev, with Stoyko Stoychev as senior sergeant, and a Soviet political commissar named Isaev. This sub-sector has a reputation for brutal efficiency.
